Purpose of this modification:

1. This technical refreshment is issued pursuant to contract section H.17. Additional labor categories and their respective definitions (included hereby in contract section J) and associated ceiling labor rates (included hereby in contract section B) resulting from completed negotiations and agreement of the parties are hereby incorporated into the basic contract. This modification is expected to increase the availability of pre-priced labor categories and reduce the utilization of other direct costs.
2. Ordering Contracting Officers and industry partners should continue to refer to the 8(a) STARS ordering guide for guidance on competition requirements and price reasonableness for orders.
3. Existing basic contract labor categories and associated ceiling labor rates remain unchanged. These new labor categories and ceiling rates do not apply to task orders already in place unless they are determined to be within task order scope, prices are deemed reasonable and are adopted by agreement of the parties.
4. All other terms and conditions remain unchanged.
