2005 annual profile
child care centers in gsa space
What a difference you make, you who serve children and their families do so directly! And they’re so well served when they can come to believe that there isn’t anything in their lives that can’t be expressed in words or play or craft or whatever healthy way they happen to choose - such a gift will last them all of their days.

Fred Rogers
The General Services Administration’s Child Care Program supports the national commitment to providing quality child care as a key building amenity and an essential component of a quality work environment. The Office of Child Care, within the Public Buildings Service, oversees the program ensuring that the working families using child care centers located in GSA managed space receive high quality care for their children.

We work in partnership with federal agencies and boards of directors to select high quality child care providers. We strive to take advantage of the best available child care resources within each local community. Overall program guidance and standards are prioritized in formal licensing agreements.

Title 40 of the United States Code, section 590 gives federal agencies the authority to establish child care centers for federal families. The centers are designed to serve federal families on a priority basis and community participation is welcome. The code also allows federal agencies to use appropriated dollars to improve the affordability of child care for lower income federal employees.
families

Through the GSA Child Care Program, parents have access to reliable, high quality child care centers within our managed space. Our on-site centers are safe and secure, allowing families to work more effectively. Surveys show that over ninety percent of our parents are satisfied with our program.
