FEDERAL TRAVEL REGULATION
Amendment 2005-03

TO: Heads of Federal agencies

SUBJECT: Amendment 2005-03, FTR Case 2005-304, Transportation Expenses

1. Purpose. This amendment transmits changed pages to the Federal Travel Regulation (FTR) to clarify various provisions regarding the use of first-class, business-class, coach-class and single-class air service. The FTR and any corresponding documents may be accessed at GSA’s website at http://www.gsa.gov/ftr.

2. Background. The Administrator of General Services is amending the FTR to clarify the use of first-class air service as being the highest class of accommodation offered by the airlines in terms of both cost and amenities and termed “first-class” by the airlines and any reservation system. Business-class is defined as a premium-class of accommodation offered by the airlines that is higher than coach and lower than first class, in both cost and amenities. This class of accommodation is generally referred to as “business, business elite, business first, world business, connoisseur, or envoy” depending on the airline. Coach-class is defined as the basic class of accommodations offered to travelers regardless of fare paid. The terms “tourist” or “economy-class” are sometimes used for this class of accommodation. Single-class is the term applied when an airline offers only one class of accommodations to all travelers.

4. Explanation of changes. Appendix C to chapter 301, and parts 301-2, 301-10, 301-11, 301-13, 301-50, 301-70, 301-71, 304-3, and 304-5 are amended to reflect the changes noted to the classes of air travel service.
5. Filing instructions. Remove and insert the following pages to the FTR:

§301-10.262—How will my agency authorize travel on Government aircraft?
Chapter 301—Temporary Duty (TDY) Travel Allowances
Part 301-2—General Rules

PART 301-2—GENERAL RULES

§301-2.1 Must I have authorization to travel?
Yes, generally you must have written or electronic authorization prior to incurring any travel expense. If it is not practicable or possible to obtain such authorization prior to travel, your agency may approve a specific authorization for reimbursement of travel expenses after travel is completed. However, written or electronic advance authorization is required for items in §301-2.5(c), (i), (n), and (o) of this part.

§301-2.2 What travel expenses may my agency pay?
Your agency may pay only those expenses essential to the transaction of official business, which include:
(a) Transportation expenses as provided in Part 301-10 of this chapter;
(b) Per diem expenses as provided in Part 301-11 of this chapter;
(c) Miscellaneous expenses as provided in Part 301-12 of this chapter; and
(d) Travel expenses of an employee with special needs as provided in Part 301-13 of this chapter.

§301-2.3 What standard of care must I use in incurring travel expenses?
You must exercise the same care in incurring expenses that a prudent person would exercise if traveling on personal business.

§301-2.4 For what travel expenses am I responsible?
You are responsible for expenses over the reimbursement limits established in this chapter. Your agency will not pay for excess costs resulting from circuitous routes, delays, or luxury accommodations or services unnecessary or unjustified in the performance of official business.

§301-2.5 What travel arrangements require specific authorization or prior approval?
You must have a specific authorization or prior approval for:
(a) Use of first-class or business-class service on common carrier transportation;
(b) Use of a foreign air carrier;
(c) Use of reduced fares for group or charter arrangements;
(d) Use of cash to pay for common carrier transportation;
(e) Use of extra-fare train service;
(f) Travel by ship;
(g) Use of a rental car;
(h) Use of a Government aircraft;
(i) Payment of a reduced per diem rate;
(j) Payment of actual expense;
(k) Travel expenses related to emergency travel;
(l) Transportation expenses related to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees and members of their families;
(m) Travel expenses related to travel to a foreign area;
(n) Acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses, see Chapter 304 of this subtitle; and
(o) Travel expenses related to attendance at a conference.

Note to §301-2.5: Paragraphs (c), (i), (n), and (o) of this section require a written or electronic advance authorization.
PART 301-10—TRANSPORTATION EXPENSES

§301-10.1 Am I eligible for payment of transportation expenses?
Yes, when performing official travel, including local travel.

§301-10.2 What expenses are payable as transportation?
Fares, rental fees, mileage payments, and other expenses related to transportation.

§301-10.3 What methods of transportation may my agency authorize me to use?
Your agency may authorize:
(a) Common carrier transportation (e.g., aircraft, train, bus, ship, or local transit system) under Subpart B;
(b) Government vehicle under Subpart C;
(c) POV under Subpart D; or
(d) Special conveyance (e.g., taxi or commercial automobile) under Subpart E.

§301-10.4 How does my agency select the method of transportation to be used?
Your agency must select the method most advantageous to the Government, when cost and other factors are considered. Under 5 U.S.C. 5733, travel must be by the most expeditious means of transportation practicable and commensurate with the nature and purpose of your duties. In addition, your agency must consider energy conservation, total cost to the Government (including costs of per diem, overtime, lost worktime, and actual transportation costs), total distance traveled, number of points visited, and number of travelers.

§301-10.5 What are the presumptions as to the most advantageous method of transportation?
(a) Common carrier. Travel by common carrier is presumed to be the most advantageous method of transportation and must be used when reasonably available.
(b) Government automobile. When your agency determines that your travel must be performed by automobile, a Government automobile is presumed to be the most advantageous method of transportation.

§301-10.6 What is my liability if I do not travel by the selected method of transportation?
If you do not travel by the method of transportation required by regulation or selected by your agency, any additional expenses you incur will be borne by you.

§301-10.7 How should I route my travel?
You must travel to your destination by the usually traveled route unless your agency authorizes or approves a different route as officially necessary.

§301-10.8 What is my liability if, for personal convenience, I travel by an indirect route or interrupt travel by a direct route?
Your reimbursement will be limited to the cost of travel by a direct route or on an uninterrupted basis. You will be responsible for any additional costs.

Subpart B—Common Carrier Transportation

§301-10.100 What types of common carrier transportation may I be authorized to use?
You may be authorized to use airline, train, ship, or local transit system.

§301-10.106 What are the basic requirements for using airlines?
The requirements for using airlines fall into three categories:
(a) Using contract carriers, when available;
(b) Using coach class service, unless business-class or first-class service is authorized;
(c) Using U.S. flag air carrier or (ship) service, unless use of foreign air carrier or (ship) is authorized.

Use of Contract City-Pair Fares

§301-10.107 When must I use a contract city-pair fare?
You must always use a contract city-pair fare for scheduled air passenger transportation service, (an Internet list of city-pairs is available at http://pub.fss.gsa.gov/services/citypairs), if you are a civilian employee of an agency (see §301-1.1 of this chapter), unless one or more of the following conditions exist(s):
(a) Space or a scheduled contract flight is not available in time to accomplish the purpose of your travel, or use of contract service would require you to incur unnecessary overnight lodging costs which would increase the total cost of the trip; or §301-10.108 What requirements must be met to use a non-contract fare?
Before purchasing a non-contract fare—
(a) You must—
(1) Meet one of the requirements for exceptions listed in §301-10.107; and
(2) If the non-contract fare is non-refundable, restricted or has specific eligibility requirements, you must know or reasonably anticipate, based on your planned trip, that you will use the ticket.
(b) Your agency must determine that the proposed non-contract transportation is practical and cost effective for the Government.

§301-10.109 What is my liability for unauthorized use of a non-contract carrier when contract service is available and I do not meet one of the exceptions for required use?
Any additional costs or penalties incurred by you resulting from unauthorized use of non-contract service are borne by you.

§301-10.110 May I use contract passenger transportation service for personal travel?
No.

§301-10.111 When may I use a reduced group or charter fare?
You may use a reduced group or charter fare when your agency has determined, on an individual case basis prior to your travel, that use of such a fare is cost effective. Chartered aircraft are subject to the same rules as Government aircraft, and agencies in the executive branch of the Federal Government are subject to the requirements of Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-126 and 41 CFR part 101-37 in making such cost effectiveness determinations.

§301-10.112 What must I do when different airlines furnish the same service at different fares?
When there is no contract fare, and common carriers furnish the same service at different fares between the same points for the same type of accommodations, you must use the lowest cost service unless your agency determines that the use of higher cost service is more advantageous to the Government.

§301-10.113 What must I do if I change or do not use a common carrier reservation?
If you know you will change or not use your reservation, you must take action to change or cancel it as prescribed by your agency. Also, you must report all changes of your reservation according to your agency’s procedures in an effort to prevent losses to the Government. Failure to do so may subject you to liability for any resulting losses.

§301-10.114 What must I do with unused Government Transportation Request(s) (GTR(s), ticket(s) or refund application(s))?
You must submit any unused GTR(s), unused ticket coupons, unused e-tickets, or refund applications to your agency in accordance with your agency’s procedures.

§301-10.115 Am I authorized to receive a refund or credit for unused transportation?
No. You are not authorized to receive a refund, credit, or any other negotiable document from a carrier for unfurnished services (except as provided in §301-10.117) or any portion of an unused ticket issued in exchange for a GTR or billed to an agency’s centrally billed account. However, any charges billed directly to your individually billed Government charge card should be credited to your account.

§301-10.116 What must I do with compensation an airline gives me if it denies me a seat on a plane?
If you are performing official travel and a carrier denies you a confirmed reserved seat on a plane, you must give your agency any payment you receive for liquidated damages. You must ensure the carrier shows the “Treasurer of the United States” as payee on the compensation check and then forward the payment to the appropriate agency official.
§301-10.117 May I keep compensation an airline gives me for voluntarily vacating my seat on my scheduled airline flight when the airline asks for volunteers?

Yes:
(a) If voluntarily vacating your seat will not interfere with performing your official duties; and
(b) If additional travel expenses, incurred as a result of vacating your seat, are borne by you and are not reimbursed; but
(c) If volunteering delays your travel during duty hours, your agency will charge you with annual leave for the additional hours.

Airline Accommodations

§301-10.121 What classes of airline accommodations are available?

The following classes of air accommodations are available:

(a) Coach-class. The basic class of accommodations offered to travelers regardless of fare paid. The terms “tourist” or “economy-class” are sometimes used for this class of accommodation. When authorizing this class of accommodation, use of the contract city-pair fare is mandatory.

(b) Business-class. A premium-class of accommodation offered by the airlines that is higher than coach and lower than first class, in both cost and amenities. This class of accommodation is generally referred to as “business, business elite, business first, world business, connoisseur, or envoy,” depending on the airline. Not all city-pair fares are available in business-class, and even when use of business-class is authorized, the use of business-class city-pair fares is optional. This class of service may only be authorized in accordance with the provisions of §301-10.124 of this part.

(c) First-class. Generally, the highest class of accommodation offered by the airlines in terms of both cost and amenities and termed “first-class” by the airlines and any reservation system. This class of accommodation may only be authorized in accordance with the provisions of §301-10.123 of this part. There are no contract city-pair fares for this class of accommodation.

(d) Single-class. This term applies when an airline offers only one class of accommodations to all travelers.

§301-10.122 What class of airline accommodations must I use?

For official business travel, both domestic and international, you must use coach-class accommodations, except as provided under §§301-10.123 and 301-10.124.

§301-10.123 When may I use first-class airline accommodations?

You may use first-class airline accommodations only when your agency specifically authorizes/approves your use of such accommodations, for the reasons given under paragraphs (a) through (d) of this section.

(a) No coach or business-class accommodations are reasonably available. “Reasonably available” means available on an airline that is scheduled to leave within 24 hours of your proposed departure time, or scheduled to arrive within 24 hours of your proposed arrival time.

(b) When use of first-class is necessary to accommodate a disability or other special need. A disability must be substantiated in writing by a competent medical authority. A special need must be substantiated in writing according to your agency’s procedures. If you are authorized under §301-10.124 of this chapter to have an attendant accompany you, your agency also may authorize the attendant to use first-class accommodations if you require the attendant’s services en route.

(c) When exceptional security circumstances require first-class travel. Exceptional security circumstances are determined by your agency and include, but are not limited to:

1. Use of other than first-class accommodations would endanger your life or Government property;
2. You are an agent on protective detail and you are accompanying an individual authorized to use first-class accommodations;
3. You are a courier or control officer accompanying controlled pouches or packages.

(d) When required because of agency mission.

Note to §301-10.123: You may upgrade to first-class at your personal expense, including through redemption of frequent flyer benefits.

§301-10.124 When may I use business-class airline accommodations?

Only when your agency specifically authorizes/approves your use of such accommodations, for the reasons given under paragraphs (a) through (i) of this section.

(a) Regularly scheduled flights between origin/destination points (including connecting points) provide only first-class and business-class accommodations and you certify such on your voucher; or

(b) No space is available in coach-class accommodations in time to accomplish the mission, which is urgent and cannot be postponed; or

(c) When use of business-class accommodations is necessary to accommodate your disability or other special need. Disability must be substantiated in writing by a competent medical authority. Special need must be substantiated in writing according to your agency’s procedures. If you are authorized under §301-10.124 of this chapter to have an attendant accompany you, your agency also may authorize the attendant to use business-class accommodations if you require the attendant’s services en route; or

(d) Security purposes or exceptional circumstances as determined by your agency make the use of business-class accommodations necessary.
§301-10.131 What does United States mean?

For purposes of the use of United States flag air carriers, “United States” means the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the territories and possessions of the United States (49 U.S.C. 40102).

§301-10.132 Who is required to use a U.S. flag air carrier?

Anyone whose air travel is financed by U.S. Government funds, except as provided in §§301-10.135, 301-10.136, and 301-10.137.

§301-10.133 What is a U.S. flag air carrier?

An air carrier which holds a certificate under 49 U.S.C. 41102 but does not include a foreign air carrier operating under a permit.

§301-10.134 What is U.S. flag air carrier service?

U.S. flag air carrier service is service provided on an air carrier which holds a certificate under 49 U.S.C. 41102 and which service is authorized either by the carrier’s certificate or by exemption or regulation. U.S. flag air carrier service also includes service provided under a code share agreement with a foreign air carrier in accordance with Title 14, Code of Federal Regulations when the ticket, or documentation for an electronic ticket, identifies the U.S. flag air carrier’s designator code and flight number.

§301-10.135 When must I travel using U.S. flag air carrier service?

You are required by 49 U.S.C. 40118, commonly referred to as the “Fly America Act,” to use U.S. flag air carrier service for all air travel funded by the U.S. Government, except as provided in §§301-10.136 and 301-10.137 or when one of the following exceptions applies:

(a) Use of a foreign air carrier is determined to be a matter of necessity in accordance with §301-10.138; or

(b) The transportation is provided under a bilateral or multilateral air transportation agreement to which the United States Government and the government of a foreign country are parties, and which the Department of Transportation has determined meets the requirements of the Fly America Act; or

(c) You are an officer or employee of the Department of State, United States Information Agency, United States International Development Cooperation Agency, or the Arms Control Disarmament Agency, and your travel is paid with funds appropriated to one of these agencies, and your travel is between two places outside the United States; or

(d) No U.S. flag air carrier provides service on a particular leg of the route, in which case foreign air carrier service may be used, but only to or from the nearest interchange point on a usually traveled route to connect with U.S. flag air carrier service; or

(e) A U.S. flag air carrier involuntarily reroutes your travel on a foreign air carrier; or

(f) Service on a foreign air carrier would be three hours or less, and use of the U.S. flag air carrier would at least double your en route travel time; or

(g) When the costs of transportation are reimbursed in full by a third party, such as a foreign government, international agency, or other organization.

§301-10.136 What exceptions to the Fly America Act requirements apply when I travel between the United States and another country?

The exceptions are:

(a) If a U.S. flag air carrier offers nonstop or direct service (no aircraft change) from your origin to your destination, you must use the U.S. flag air carrier service unless such use would extend your travel time, including delay at origin, by 24 hours or more.

(b) If a U.S. flag air carrier does not offer nonstop or direct service (no aircraft change) between your origin and your destination, you must use a U.S. flag air carrier on every portion of the route where it provides service unless, when compared to using a foreign air carrier, such use would:

1. Increase the number of aircraft changes you must make outside of the U.S. by 2 or more; or

2. Extend your travel time by at least 6 hours or more; or

3. Require a connecting time of 4 hours or more at an overseas interchange point.
Chapter 301—Temporary Duty (TDY) Travel Allowances
Part 301-11—Per Diem Expenses

§301-11.17 If my agency authorizes per diem reimbursement, will it reduce my M&IE allowance for a meal(s) provided by a common carrier or for a complimentary meal(s) provided by a hotel/motel?
No. A meal provided by a common carrier or a complimentary meal provided by a hotel/motel does not affect your per diem.

§301-11.18 What M&IE rate will I receive if a meal(s) is furnished at nominal or no cost by the Government or is included in the registration fee?
Your M&IE rate must be adjusted for a meal(s) furnished to you (except as provided in §301-11.17), with or without cost, by deducting the appropriate amount shown in the chart in this section for CONUS travel, reference Appendix B of this chapter for OCONUS travel, or any method determined by your agency. If you pay for a meal that has been previously deducted, your agency will reimburse you up to the deduction amount. The total amount of deductions made will not cause you to receive less than the amount allowed for incidental expenses.

§301-11.19 How is my per diem calculated when I travel across the international dateline (IDL)?
When you cross the IDL your actual elapsed travel time will be used to compute your per diem entitlement rather than calendar days.

§301-11.20 May my agency authorize a rest period for me while I am traveling?
(a) Your agency may authorize a rest period not in excess of 24 hours at either an intermediate point or at your destination if:
(1) Either your origin or destination point is OCONUS;
(2) Your scheduled flight time, including stopovers, exceeds 14 hours;
(3) Travel is by a direct or usually traveled route; and
(4) Travel is by coach-class service.
(b) When a rest stop is authorized the applicable per diem rate is the rate for the rest stop location.

§301-11.21 Will I be reimbursed for per diem or actual expenses on leave or non-workdays (weekend, legal Federal Government holiday, or other scheduled non-workdays) while I am on official travel?
(a) In general, you will be reimbursed as long as your travel status requires your stay to include a non-workday, (e.g., if you are on travel through Friday and again starting Monday you will be reimbursed for Saturday and Sunday), however, your agency should determine the most cost effective situation (i.e., remaining in a travel status and paying per diem or actual expenses or permitting your return to your official station).
(b) Your agency will determine whether you will be reimbursed for non-workdays when you take leave immediately (e.g., Friday or Monday) before of after the non-workday(s).

Note to §301-11.21: If emergency travel is involved due to an incapacitating illness or injury, the rules in Part 301-30 of this chapter govern.

§301-11.22 Am I entitled to per diem or actual expense reimbursement if I am required to return to my official station on a non-workday?
If required by your agency to return to your official station on a non-workday, you will be reimbursed the amount allowable for return travel.

§301-11.23 Are there any other circumstances when my agency may reimburse me to return home or to my official station for non-workdays during a TDY assignment?
Your agency may authorize per diem or actual expense and round-trip transportation expenses for periodic return travel on non-workdays to your home or official station under the following circumstances:
(a) The agency requires you to return to your official station to perform official business; or
(b) The agency will realize a substantial cost savings by returning you home; or
(c) Periodic return travel home is justified incident to an extended TDY assignment.

§301-11.24 What reimbursement will I receive if I voluntarily return home or to my official station on non-workdays during my TDY assignment?
If you voluntarily return home or to your official station on non-workdays during a TDY assignment, the maximum reimbursement for round trip transportation and per diem or actual expense is limited to what would have been allowed had you remained at the TDY location.

§301-11.25 Must I provide receipts to substantiate my claimed travel expenses?
Yes, you must provide a lodging receipt and either a receipt for any authorized expenses incurred costing over $75, or a reason acceptable to your agency explaining why you are unable to provide the necessary receipt.
§301-11.26 How do I get a per diem rate increased?

If you travel to a location where the per diem rate is insufficient to meet necessary expenses, you may submit a request, containing pertinent lodging and meal cost data, through your agency asking that the location be surveyed. Depending on the location in question your agency may submit the survey request to:

<tr>
<th>For CONUS locations</th>
<th>For non-foreign area locations</th>
<th>For foreign area locations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>General Services Administration, Office of Governmentwide Policy, Attn: Travel Management Division (MTT), Washington, DC 20405.</td>

<td>Department of State, Director of Allowances, State Annex 29, Room 262, Washington, DC 20522-2902.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

§301-11.27 Are taxes included in the lodging portion of the Government per diem rate?

No. Lodging taxes paid by you are reimbursable as a miscellaneous travel expense limited to the taxes on reimbursable lodging costs. For example, if your agency authorizes you a maximum lodging rate of $50 per night, and you elect to stay at a hotel that costs $100 per night, you can only claim the amount of taxes on $50, which is the maximum authorized lodging amount. This section is effective January 1, 1999, for CONUS locations and effective January 1, 2000, for non-foreign areas. For foreign areas, lodging taxes have not been removed from foreign per diem rates established by the Department of State, or from non-foreign area per diem rates established by the Department of Defense. Separate claims for laundry and dry cleaning expenses incurred in foreign areas and non-foreign areas are not allowed.

§301-11.28 As a traveler on official business, am I required to pay applicable lodging taxes?

Yes, unless exempted by the State of local jurisdiction.

§301-11.29 Are lodging facilities required to accept a generic federal, state or local tax exempt certificate?

Exemptions from taxes for Federal travelers, and the forms required to claim them, vary from location to location. The GSA Travel Homepage (http://policyworks.gov/travel) lists jurisdictions where tax exempt certificates should be honored.

§301-11.30 What is my option if the Government lodging rate plus applicable taxes exceeds my lodging reimbursement?

You may request reimbursement on an actual expense basis, not to exceed 300 percent of the maximum per diem allowance. Approval of actual expenses is usually in advance of travel and at the discretion of your agency. (See §301-11.302.)

§301-11.31 Are laundry, cleaning and pressing of clothing expenses reimbursable?

Yes. The expenses incurred for laundry, cleaning and pressing of clothing at a TDY location are reimbursable as a miscellaneous travel expense. However, you must incur a minimum of 4 consecutive nights lodging on official travel to qualify for this reimbursement. Laundry and dry cleaning expenses have not been removed from foreign per diem rates established by the Department of State, or from non-foreign area per diem rates established by the Department of Defense. Separate claims for laundry and dry cleaning expenses incurred in foreign areas and non-foreign areas are not allowed.

§301-11.32 May I be reimbursed for an advanced room deposit in situations where a lodging facility requires the payment of a deposit, prior to the beginning of my scheduled official travel?

Yes, your agency may reimburse you for an advance room deposit, when such a deposit is required by the lodging facility to secure a room reservation, prior to the beginning of your scheduled official travel. However, if you are reimbursed the advance room deposit, but fail to perform the scheduled official travel for reasons not acceptable to your agency, resulting in forfeit of the deposit, you are indebted to the Government for that amount and must repay it in a manner prescribed by your agency.

Subpart B—Lodgings Plus Per Diem

§301-11.100 What will I be paid for lodging under Lodgings-plus per diem?

When travel is more than 12 hours and overnight lodging is required you are reimbursed your actual lodging cost not to exceed the maximum lodging rate for the TDY location or stopover point.

§301-11.101 What allowance will I be paid for M&IE?

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, your allowance is as shown in the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>When travel is</th>
<th>Your allowance is</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>More than 12 but less than 24 hours</td>

PART 301-13—TRAVEL OF AN EMPLOYEE WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 5707.

§301-13.1 What is the policy for paying additional travel expenses incurred by an employee with a special need?
The policy is to provide reasonable accommodations to an employee with a special need by paying for additional travel expenses incurred.

§301-13.2 Under what conditions will my agency pay for my additional travel expense(s) under this part?
When an additional travel expense is necessary to accommodate a special physical need which is either:
(a) Clearly visible and discernible; or
(b) Substantiated in writing by a competent medical authority.

§301-13.3 What additional travel expenses may my agency pay under this part?
The following expenses:
(a) Transportation and per diem expenses incurred by a family member or other attendant who must travel with you to make the trip possible;
(b) Specialized transportation to, from, and/or at the TDY duty location;
(c) Specialized services provided by a common carrier to accommodate your special need;
(d) Costs for handling your baggage that are a direct result of your special need;
(e) Renting and/or transporting a wheelchair; and
(f) First-class accommodations under §301-10.123(b) and business-class accommodations under §301-10.124(c) of this chapter when necessary to accommodate your special need.

PART 301-50—ARRANGING FOR TRAVEL SERVICES

§301-50.1 To whom do the pronouns “I”, “you”, and their variants throughout this part refer?

In this part, the pronouns “I”, “you”, and their variants refer to the employee.

§301-50.2 How must I arrange my travel?

You must arrange your travel as designated by your agency in accordance with this part.

§301-50.3 Must I use the eTravel Service to arrange my travel?

Yes, if you are an employee of an agency as defined in §301-1.1 of this chapter, you must use the eTravel Service when your agency makes it available to you. Until then, you must use your agency's existing Travel Management System (TMS) to make your travel arrangements. If you are an employee of the Department of Defense (DoD) or of the Government of the District of Columbia, you must arrange your travel in accordance with your agency's TMS.

§301-50.4 May I be granted an exception to the required use of the eTravel Service?

Your agency head or designee(s) may grant case-by-case exceptions to the use of eTS when it—

(a) Causes an unreasonable burden on your agency mission accomplishment(s) (e.g., emergency travel and eTS is not accessible), invitational travel, necessity of disability accommodations or special needs (in accordance with Part 301-13 of this chapter));

(b) Compromises a national security interest; or

(c) May endanger the life of the traveler (e.g., individual traveling under the Federal witness protection program, or threatened law enforcement/investigative personnel traveling in accordance with Part 301-31 of this chapter).

§301-50.5 What is my liability if I do not use my agency's TMS or the eTravel Service, and an exception has not been approved?

If you do not have an approved exception under §§301-50.4 or 301-73.104 of this chapter, you are responsible for any additional costs resulting from the failure to use the TMS or eTravel Service, including service fees, cancellation penalties, or other additional costs (e.g., higher airfares, rental car charges, or hotel rates). In addition, your agency may take appropriate disciplinary action.

§301-50.6 Are there any limits on travel arrangements I may make?

Yes, there are limits on travel arrangements you may make for common carrier, commercial lodging, and car rental accommodations. Such limitations include, but are not limited to the following:

(a) Common carrier accommodations. (1) If your agency is a mandatory user of the General Services Administration's city-pair contracts for air passenger transportation services, you must use the contract carrier, unless you have an approved exception (see §§301-10.107 and 301-10.108 of this chapter);

(2) You may use first-class accommodations only under §§301-10.123, 301-10.162, and 301-10.183 and business-class accommodations only under §301-10.124 of this chapter; and

(3) You must always use a U.S. Flag Air Carrier unless your travel circumstances meet one of the exceptions in §§301-10.131 through 301-10.143 of this chapter.

(b) Lodging accommodations. (1) You should always stay in a “fire safe” facility. This is a facility that meets the fire safety requirements of the Hotel and Motel Fire Safety Act of 1990, as amended (see 5 U.S.C. 5707a).

(2) When selecting a commercial lodging facility, first consideration must be given to the commercial lodging facilities contracted by GSA under the Federal Premier Lodging Program (FPLP) (a list of FPLP facilities may be found on the Internet at http://www.gsa.gov), all of which meet fire safety requirements, unless one or more of the following conditions exist:

(i) An FPLP facility is not available at the location you need (e.g., there are no FPLP facilities under contract within a reasonable proximity of your temporary duty station, or there are no vacancies at the FPLP facilities at that location). (Your agency's TMS or eTravel Service (eTS) must provide you with a list of alternative facilities that meet the fire safety requirements of the Act).

(ii) Your agency has other contractual arrangements with commercial lodging facilities that meet the FEMA fire safety requirements at a lower cost than FPLP properties.

(iii) Your agency determines on an individual case-by-case basis that it is not practical to use FPLP facilities to meet mission requirements.

(iv) You are attending a conference with prearranged lodging accommodations and are required to book lodging directly with the lodging facility.

(v) Your travel is OCONUS.

(c) Car rental accommodations. When authorized to use a rental vehicle under §301-10.450 of this chapter, you must rent a vehicle from a vendor that participates in the Military Traffic Management Command (MTMC) U.S. Government Car Rental Agreement, unless you are OCONUS and no agreement is in place for your TDY location. MTMC has negotiated rental car agreements that include automatic unlimited mileage, collision damage insurance, and ceiling rates.

Chapter 301—Temporary Duty (TDY) Travel Allowances
Part 301-70—Internal Policy and Procedure Requirements

PART 301-70—INTERNAL POLICY AND PROCEDURE REQUIREMENTS

Subpart A—General Policies and Procedures

§301-70.1 How must we administer the authorization and payment of travel expenses?
When administering the authorization and payment of travel expenses, you—
(a) Must limit the authorization and payment of travel expenses to travel that is necessary to accomplish your mission in the most economical and effective manner, under rules stated throughout this chapter;
(b) Should give consideration to budget constraints, adherence to travel policies, and reasonableness of expenses;
(c) Should always consider alternatives, including teleconferencing, prior to authorizing travel; and
(d) Must require employees to use the eTS to process travel authorizations and claims for travel expenses once you migrate to the eTS, but no later than September 30, 2006, unless an exception has been granted under §§301-73.102 or 301-73.104 of this chapter.

Subpart B—Policies and Procedure Relating to Transportation

§301-70.100 How must we administer the authorization and payment of transportation expenses?
You must:
(a) Limit authorization and payment of transportation expenses to those expenses that result in the greatest advantage to the Government;
(b) Ensure that travel is by the most expeditious means practicable.

§301-70.101 What factors must we consider in determining which method of transportation results in the greatest advantage to the Government?
In selecting a particular method of transportation you must consider:
(a) The total cost to the Government, including per diem, overtime, lost worktime, actual transportation cost, total distance of travel, number of points visited, the number of travelers and energy conservation. As stated in 5 U.S.C. 5733, “travel of an employee shall be by the most expeditious means of transportation practicable and shall be commensurate with the nature and purpose of the duties of the employee requiring such travel.”
(b) Travel by common carrier (air, rail, bus) is considered the most advantageous method to perform official travel. Other methods of transportation may be authorized as advantageous only when the use of common carrier transportation would interfere with the performance of official business or impose an undue hardship upon the traveler, or when the total cost by common carrier exceeds the cost by another method of transportation. A determination that another method of transportation is more advantageous to the Government than common carrier will not be made on the basis of personal preference or inconvenience to the traveler.

§301-70.102 What governing policies must we establish for authorization and payment of transportation expenses?
You must establish policies and procedures governing:
(a) Who will determine what method of transportation is more advantageous to the Government;
(b) Who will approve any of the following:
(1) Use of business-class service for airlines under §301-10.124 and first-class service for air, rail, and ship under §§301-10.123, 301-10.162, and 301-10.183 of this chapter;
(2) Use of a special-reduced fare or reduced group or charter fare;
(3) Use of an extra-fare train service under §301-10.164;
(4) Use of ship service;
(5) Use of a foreign ship;
(6) Use of a foreign air carrier;
(c) When you will:
(1) Require the use of a Government vehicle;
(2) Allow the use of a Government vehicle; and
(3) Prohibit the use of a Government vehicle;
(d) When you will consider use of a POV advantageous to the Government, such as travel to/from common carrier terminals, or transportation to a TDY location;
(e) Procedures for claiming POV reimbursement;
(f) When you will allow use of a special conveyance (e.g., commercially rented vehicles);
(g) What procedures an employee must follow when he/she travels by an indirect route or interrupts travel by a direct route; and
(h) For local transportation whether to reimburse the full amount of transportation costs or only the amount by which transportation costs exceed the employee’s normal costs for transportation between:
(1) Office or duty point and another place of business;
(2) Places of business; or...
§301-70.103 In what circumstance may we authorize use of ship service?
Travel by ship is not generally regarded as advantageous. You must determine that the advantages accruing from the use of ocean transportation offset the higher costs associated with ship travel, i.e., per diem, transportation, and lost worktime.

§301-70.104 What factors should we consider in determining whether to require an employee to commit to the use of a Government automobile?
You should consider:
(a) The advantages of using a Government automobile. Such advantages may include, but are not limited to:
   (1) Full utilization or availability of fleet vehicles;
   (2) Lower cost;
   (3) Official presence.
(b) The type of travel the employee performs. You should require such a commitment when an employee or group of employees requires the use of an automobile for official travel on a frequent or repetitive basis.

§301-70.105 May we prohibit an employee from using a POV on official travel?
No, but if the employee elects to use a POV instead of an alternative form of transportation you authorize, you must:
(a) Limit reimbursement to the constructive cost of the authorized method of transportation, which is the sum of per diem and transportation expenses the employee would reasonably have incurred when traveling by the authorized method of transportation; and
(b) Charge leave for any duty hours that are missed as a result of travel by POV.

Subpart E—Policies and Procedures Relating to Travel of an Employee with a Disability or Special Need §301-70.400 How should we authorize and administer the payment of additional travel expenses for an employee with a disability or special need?

You should authorize and administer the payment to reasonably accommodate employee(s) with disabilities in accordance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 29 U.S.C. 701-797(b) and 5 U.S.C. 3102 and Part 301-13 of this chapter. An employee with a special need should be treated the same as an employee with a disability. The additional travel expenses must be necessary to accommodate the employee’s needs.

§301-70.401 What governing policies and procedures must we establish regarding travel of an employee with a disability or special need?
You must establish the policies and procedures governing:
(a) Who will determine if an employee has a disability or special need which requires accommodation, including when documentation is necessary under §§301-10.123, 301-10.124, 301-10.162, and 301-10.183, and when a determination may be based on a clearly visible physical condition; and
(b) Who will determine how to reasonably accommodate the employee and what expenses you will pay.
PART 301-71—AGENCY TRAVEL ACCOUNTABILITY REQUIREMENTS

Subpart A—General

Note to Subpart A: For purposes of this subpart, GSA uses a “we” question when referring to an agency, and an “I” question when referring to the employee.

§301-71.1 What is the purpose of an agency travel accounting system?
To:
(a) Pay authorized and allowable travel expenses of employees;
(b) Provide standard data necessary for the management of official travel; and
(c) Ensure adequate accounting for all travel and transportation expenses for official travel.

§301-71.2 What are the standard data elements and when must they be captured on a travel accounting system?
The data elements are listed in Appendix C of this chapter and must be on any travel claim form authorized for use by your employees.

§301-71.3 May we use electronic signatures on travel documents?
Yes, if you meet the security and privacy requirements established by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) for electronic data interchange.

Subpart B—Travel Authorization

§301-71.100 What is the purpose of the travel authorization process?
The purpose is to:
(a) Provide the employee information regarding what expenses you will pay;
(b) Provide travel service vendors with necessary documentation for the use of travel programs;
(c) Provide financial information necessary for budgetary planning; and
(d) Identify purpose of travel.

§301-71.101 What travel may we authorize?
You may authorize only travel which is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Government effectively and economically. This must be communicated to any official who has the authority to authorize travel.

§301-71.102 May we issue a single authorization for a group of employees?
Yes. You may issue a single authorization for a group of employees when they are traveling together on a single trip. However, you must attach a list of all travelers to the authorization.

§301-71.103 What information must be included on all travel authorizations?
You must include:
(a) The name of the employee(s);
(b) The signature of the proper authorizing official;
(c) Purpose of travel;
(d) Any conditions of or limitations on that authorization;
(e) An estimate of the travel costs (for open authorizations it should include an estimate of the travel costs over the period covered); and
(f) A statement that the employee(s) is (are) authorized to travel.

§301-71.104 Who must sign a travel authorization?
Your agency head or an official to whom such authority has been delegated. This authority may be delegated to any person(s) who is aware of how the authorized travel will support the agency’s mission, who is knowledgeable of the employee’s travel plans and/or responsible for the travel funds paying for the travel involved.

§301-71.105 Must we issue a written or electronic travel authorization in advance of travel?
Yes, except when advance written or electronic authorization is not possible or practical and approval is in accordance with §§301-2.1 and 301-2.5 for:
(a) Use of first-class or business-class service on common carrier transportation;
(b) Use of a foreign air carrier;
(c) Use of reduced fares for group or charter arrangements;
(d) Use of cash to pay for common carrier transportation;
(e) Use of extra-fare train service;
(f) Travel by ship;
(g) Use of a rental car;
(h) Use of a Government aircraft;
(i) Payment of reduced rate per diem;
(j) Payment of actual expenses;
(k) Travel expenses related to emergency travel;
(l) Transportation expenses related to threatened law enforcement/investigative employees and members of their immediate families;
(m) Travel expenses related to travel to a foreign area, except as provided by agency mission;
§301-71.106 Who must sign a trip-by-trip authorization?
The appropriate official is determined as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>For</th>
<th>The appropriate official to sign a trip-by-trip authorization is</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Use of cash to procure common carrier transportation.</td>

<td>A senior agency official.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>All other specific authorizations.</td>
<td>An official who may issue the employee a general authorization.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

§301-71.107 When authorizing travel, what factors must the authorizing official consider?
The following factors must be considered:
(a) The need for the travel;
(b) The use of travel substitutes (e.g., mail, teleconferencing, etc.);
(c) The most cost effective routing and means of accomplishing travel; and
(d) The employee’s travel plans, including plans to take leave in conjunction with travel.

§301-71.108 What internal policies and procedures must we establish for travel authorization?
You must establish the following:
(a) The circumstances under which different types of travel authorizations will be used, consistent with the guidelines in this subpart;
(b) Who will be authorized to sign travel authorizations; and
(c) What format you will use for travel authorizations.

Subpart C—Travel Claims for Reimbursement

§301-71.200 Who must review and sign travel claims?
The travel authorizing/approving official or his/her designee (e.g., supervisor of the traveler), must review and sign travel claims to confirm the authorized travel.

§301-71.201 What are the reviewing official’s responsibilities?
The reviewing official must have full knowledge of the employee’s activities. He/she must ensure:
(a) The claim is properly prepared in accordance with the pertinent regulations and agency procedures;
(b) A copy of authorization for travel is provided;
(c) The types of expenses claimed are authorized and allowable expenses;
(d) The amounts claimed are accurate; and
(e) The required receipts, statements, justifications, etc. are attached to the travel claim.

§301-71.202 May we pay a claim when an employee does not include a copy of the corresponding authorization?
Yes, as long as the travel claim was signed by the approving/authorizing official, except for the following, which require advance authorization:
(a) Use of reduced fares for group or charter arrangements;
(b) Payment of a reduced rate of per diem for subsistence expenses;
(c) Acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses; and
(d) Travel expenses related to attendance at a conference.

§301-71.203 Who is responsible for the validity of the travel claim?
The certifying officer assumes ultimate responsibility under 31 U.S.C. 3528 for the validity of the claim; however:
(a) The traveler must ensure all travel expenses are prudent and necessary and submit the expenses in the form of a proper claim;
(b) The authorizing/approving official shall review the completed claim to ensure that the claim is properly prepared in accordance with regulations and agency procedures prior to authorizing it for payment.

Note to §301-71.203: You should consider limiting the levels of approval to the lowest level of management.

§301-71.204 Within how many calendar days after the submission of a proper travel claim must we reimburse the employee’s allowable expenses?
You must reimburse the employee within 30 calendar days after the employee submits a proper travel claim to the agency’s designated approving office. You must use a satis-

§304-6.8—Will the reports be made available for public inspection?
PART 304-3—EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITY

PART 304-3—EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITY

Subpart A—General

§304-3.1 To whom do the pronouns “I”, “you”, and their variants refer throughout this part?
Use of pronouns “I”, “you”, and their variants throughout this part refers to the employee.

§304-3.2 What is the purpose of this part?
The purpose of this part is to establish Governmentwide policy and guidance for acceptance by a Federal agency of payment for travel expenses from a non-Federal source for employees to attend meetings. It describes how such payments must be accepted by the agency for travel of agency employee(s) and/or his/her spouse for official Government travel. Except as provided in §304-3.13 of this part, advance agency approval is required to receive such payments.

§304-3.3 May my agency or I accept payment for travel expenses to a meeting from a non-Federal source?
Yes, you or your agency may accept such a payment from a non-Federal source, but you may only accept when your agency specifically authorizes such acceptance under the requirements of this part. Except as provided in §304-3.13 of this part, your agency must approve acceptance of such payment in advance of your travel.

§304-3.4 What payments may my agency or I accept from a non-Federal source?
You or your agency may accept payments other than cash from a non-Federal source for all of your official travel expenses to attend a meeting of mutual interest, or any portion of those travel expenses mutually agreed upon between your agency and the non-Federal source. You may not accept payments for travel that is not to attend a meeting under this part. However, you may be able to accept payments under other authorities (see §304-3.19).

§304-3.5 May I solicit payment of my travel expenses from a non-Federal source to attend a meeting?
No, you may not solicit payment for travel expenses from a non-Federal source to attend a meeting.

§304-3.6 May I inform a non-Federal source of my agency's authority to accept payment for travel expenses to attend a meeting?
Yes, you or your agency may inform the non-Federal source of your agency’s authority to accept payment for travel expenses to attend a meeting.

§304-3.11 Am I limited to the maximum subsistence allowances (per diem, actual expense, or conference lodging) prescribed in applicable travel regulations for travel expenses paid by a non-Federal source?
Generally yes. Subsistence expenses are usually limited to the maximum subsistence allowances (per diem, actual expenses or conference lodging) prescribed in applicable travel regulations for travel expenses paid by a non-Federal source.

§304-3.7 What must I do if I am contacted directly by a non-Federal source offering to pay my travel expenses to attend a meeting?
If you are contacted directly by a non-Federal source offering to pay any part of your travel expenses to attend a meeting, you must inform your agency, so that the authorized agency official can determine whether to accept the payment.

§304-3.8 Must I adhere to the provisions of the Fly America Act when I receive air transportation to a meeting furnished or paid by a non-Federal source?
No, if the payment or ticket was paid in full directly by the non-Federal source or reimbursed to your agency by the non-Federal source, the provisions of the Fly America Act do not apply. (See §§301-10.131 through 301-10.143 of this title for the regulations implementing the Fly America Act.)

§304-3.9 May I use business-class accommodations when a non-Federal source pays in full for my transportation expenses to attend a meeting?
Yes, you may use business-class accommodations if your agency authorizes you to do so in accordance with §304-5.5 of this chapter.

§304-3.10 May I use first-class common carrier accommodations when a non-Federal source pays in full for my transportation expenses to attend a meeting?
Generally no. You may not use first-class common carrier accommodations unless you meet one of the criteria for first class travel contained in §§301-10.123, 301-10.162 and 301-10.183 of this title and are authorized to do so by your agency in accordance with §304-5.6 of this chapter.

§304-3.11 Am I limited to the maximum subsistence allowances (per diem, actual expense, or conference lodging) prescribed in applicable travel regulations for travel expenses paid by a non-Federal source?
Generally yes. Subsistence expenses are usually limited to the maximum subsistence allowances (per diem, actual expenses or conference lodging) prescribed in Chapter 301 of this title for travel in CONUS, by the Secretary of Defense for travel in non-foreign areas and by the Secretary of State for travel in foreign areas. However, acceptance of payment for, and when applicable, reimbursement by an agency to an employee and the accompanying spouse of such employee are not subject to the maximum per diem or actual subsistence expense rates when traveling in CONUS or in non-foreign areas under the following conditions:
(a) The non-Federal source pays the full amount of the subsistence expense, as authorized by your agency; and §304-3.12 Must I receive advance approval from my agency before I perform travel paid by a non-Federal source to attend a meeting?

Yes, you must receive advance approval from your agency before performing travel paid by a non-Federal source to attend a meeting except as provided in §304-3.13.

§304-3.13 After I begin travel to a meeting, what should I do if a non-Federal source offers to pay for one or more of my travel expenses without my or my agency’s prior knowledge?

(a) If your agency has already authorized acceptance of payment for some of your travel expenses for that meeting from a non-Federal source, then you may accept on behalf of your agency, payment for any of your additional travel expenses from the same non-Federal source as long as—

1. The expenses paid or provided in kind are comparable in value to those offered to or purchased by other similarly situated meeting attendees; and
2. Your agency did not decline to accept payment for those particular expenses in advance of your travel.

(b) If your agency did not authorize acceptance of any payment from a non-Federal source prior to your travel, then—

1. You may accept, on behalf of your agency, payment from a non-Federal source as authorized in this section—

   i. Only the types of travel expenses that are authorized by your travel authorization (i.e., meals, lodging, transportation, but not recreation or other personal expenses); and
   ii. Only travel expenses that are within the maximum allowances stated on your travel authorization (e.g., if your travel authorization states that you are authorized to incur lodging expenses up to $100 per night, you may not accept payment from the non-Federal source for a $200 per night hotel room);
2. You must request your agency’s authorization for acceptance from the non-Federal source within 7 working days after your trip ends; and
3. If your agency does not authorize acceptance from the non-Federal source, your agency must either—
   (i) Reimburse the non-Federal source for the reasonable approximation of the market value of the benefit provided, not to exceed the maximum allowance stated on your travel authorization; or
   (ii) Require you to reimburse the non-Federal source that amount and allow you to claim that amount on your travel claim for the trip.

(c) If you accept payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses in violation of paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, you may be subject to the penalties specified in §304-3.18.

§304-3.14 May a non-Federal source pay for my spouse to accompany me to a meeting?

Yes, a non-Federal source may pay for your spouse to accompany you when it is in the interest of and authorized in advance by your agency. All limitations and requirements of this part apply to the acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses and/or agency reimbursement of travel expenses for your accompanying spouse. Your agency may determine that your spouse’s presence at an event is in the interest of the agency if your spouse will—

(a) Support the mission of your agency or substantially assist you in carrying out your official duties;
(b) Attend a ceremony at which you will receive an award or honorary degree; or
(c) Participate in substantive programs related to the agency’s programs or operations.

§304-3.15 Must I provide my agency with information about any payment I receive on its behalf?

Yes. Your agency must submit to the U.S. Office of Government Ethics (OGE) a semiannual report (SF 326) of all payments it accepts under this part. You must be prepared to give your agency the information it needs in order to submit its report.

Subpart B—Reimbursement Claims

§304-3.16 What must I submit to my agency for reimbursement when a non-Federal source pays all or part of my travel expenses to attend a meeting?

You must submit a travel claim listing all allowable travel expenses that you incurred which were not paid in kind by a non-Federal source. Do not claim travel expenses that were furnished in kind by a non-Federal source. Your reimbursement is limited to the types of expenses authorized in Chapter 301 of this title or analogous provisions of the Joint Travel Regulations or Foreign Affairs Manual. Reimbursement from your agency for expenses will not in any case exceed the amount of the expenses you incur. Such reim-
Chapter 304—Payment of Travel Expenses From a Non-Federal Source
Part 304-5—Agency Responsibilities

PART 304-5—AGENCY RESPONSIBILITIES

§304-5.1 When may we accept payment from a non-Federal source for travel to a meeting or authorize an employee to accept payment on our behalf?
You may accept payment from a non-Federal source or authorize an employee and/or the employee’s spouse to accept payment on your behalf only when—
(a) You have issued the employee (and/or the employee’s spouse, when applicable) a travel authorization before the travel begins;
(b) You have determined that the travel is in the interest of the Government;
(c) The travel relates to the employee’s official duties; and
(d) The non-Federal source is not disqualified due to a conflict of interest under §304-5.3.

§304-5.2 Who must approve acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses to a meeting?
An official at the highest practical administrative level who can evaluate the requirements in §304-5.3, must approve acceptance of such payments.

§304-5.3 What does our approving official need to consider before authorizing acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for travel expenses for a meeting?
(a) The approving official must not authorize acceptance of the payment if he/she determines that acceptance of the payment under the circumstances would cause a reasonable person with knowledge of all the facts relevant to a particular case to question the integrity of agency programs or operations. The approving official must be guided by all relevant considerations, including but not limited to the—
(1) Identity of the non-Federal source;
(2) Purpose of the meeting;
(3) Identity of other expected participants;
(4) Nature and sensitivity of any matter pending at the agency which may affect the interest of the non-Federal source;
(5) Significance of the employee’s role in any such matter; and
(6) Monetary value and character of the travel benefits offered by the non-Federal source.
(b) The agency official may find that, while acceptance from the non-Federal source is permissible, it is in the interest of the agency to qualify acceptance of the offered payment by, for example, authorizing attendance at only a portion of the event or limiting the type or character of benefits that may be accepted.

§304-5.4 May we authorize an employee to exceed the maximum subsistence allowances (per diem, actual expense, or conference lodging) prescribed in applicable travel regulations where we have authorized acceptance of payment from a non-Federal source for such allowances?
(a) Generally, yes. Subsistence allowances are usually limited to the maximum subsistence allowances (per diem, actual expense, or conference lodging) prescribed in Chapter 301 of this title for travel in CONUS, by the Secretary of Defense for travel in non-foreign areas, and by the Secretary of State for travel in foreign areas. However, the maximum subsistence allowances established by this title and by the Secretary of Defense may be exceeded as long as—
(1) The non-Federal source pays the full amount of the subsistence expenses, at issue; and
(2) The subsistence expense paid by the non-Federal source is comparable in value to that offered to or purchased by meeting attendees.
(b) The maximum subsistence allowances prescribed by the Secretary of State for travel to foreign areas may not be exceeded.

§304-5.5 May we authorize an employee to travel by business-class common carrier accommodations if we accept payment in full from a non-Federal source for such transportation expenses?
Yes, you may authorize an employee to travel by business-class common carrier accommodations as long as the—
(a) Non-Federal source makes full payment for such transportation services in advance of travel; and
(b) Transportation accommodations furnished are comparable in value to those offered to, or purchased by, other similarly situated meeting attendees.

§304-5.6 May we authorize an employee to travel by first-class common carrier accommodations if we accept payment in full from a non-Federal source for such transportation expenses?
Generally, no; however, you may authorize an employee to travel by first-class common carrier accommodations if the—
(a) Travel meets at least one of the conditions in §§301-10.123, 301-10.162 and 301-10.183 of this title; and
(b) Transportation accommodations furnished are comparable in value to those offered to, or purchased by, other similarly situated meeting attendees.
§304-5.7 May we authorize acceptance of payment from more than one non-Federal source for a single trip?

Yes, you may accept payment from more than one non-Federal source for a single trip, as long as the total of such payments do not exceed the total cost of the trip.
