STANDARD FOR RECERTIFICATION

1. The career appointee must perform at the level of excellence expected of a senior executive. Excellence means that the executive has demonstrated over the recertification period that he or she has achieved excellence in:
  - a. Planning for substantially advancing and attaining Presidential, agency, or organizational goals and objectives that required a sustained superior effort.
  - b. Taking specific initiatives that advanced a major policy and/or significantly improved delivery of services.
  - c. Taking the necessary actions to ensure the achievement of a quality product in a timely manner.
  - d. Making significant technical, scientific, or professional contributions.
  - e. Ensuring fair and equitable treatment of all persons, including the accomplishment of EEO and affirmative employment goals and objectives.

2. Also, if applicable to the responsibilities of the senior executive, excellence is demonstrated by:
  - a. Achieving substantial savings in the execution of programs under his or her direction.
  - b. Maintaining the high quality and effectiveness of a program under his or her direction with reduced resources.
  - c. Providing strong leadership to enhance the development, utilization and achievements of subordinate personnel.

The following recommendations/decision are based on an assessment of the executive's overall performance during the recertification period in relation to the above standard for recertification stipulated in law, regulation, and GSA's written procedures.
