Total Monthly Mass Transit Commuting Cost Worksheet

INSTRUCTIONS: GSA Transit Subsidy Program participants are required to calculate their actual usual monthly mass transit commuting cost for their regular daily commute to and/or from work to the nearest dollar using this worksheet. Calculate your costs by the way you pay for your commute. Use the daily column if you pay for transportation on a daily basis; the weekly column if you purchase weekly commuter tickets; or the monthly column if you purchase a monthly ticket or pass. It is possible that you may list costs in more than one column depending on the number of transportation modes you use and how you pay for them. Use the conversion table to determine total monthly mass transit commuting cost.

REMINDERS:

Parking fees are not allowed and cannot be included when computing monthly transit costs. If you are a person with a disability or a senior citizen receiving reduced transit fares, you must calculate your costs using the amount that you actually pay.

Instructions

Page 1 - Transit Subsidy Program Application

1. Indicate if the application is for a new applicant, for a current subsidy recipient's change in information, for the annual recertification process, or for cancellation (withdrawal or no longer eligible for the program).
- 2 - 7. Complete requested identifying information.
8. List your correspondence symbol. Correspondence symbols show the organizational structure and geographic locations of GSA organizations. The office of the Administrator, Services, and Staff Offices use one-letter symbols. Sub-organizations use a two-letter symbol. Smaller units within those organizations use three or even four letters. Regions are numbered 1 to 10 except for NCR, which has the designation "W." Check with your manager if you don't know your correspondence symbol.
9. Indicate your official worksite and address. If you telework, list your official worksite, not your telework location.
10. List your office telephone number (including area code). If you don't have an office telephone number, list your telework location telephone number or business cell-phone number.
11. Enter your monthly mass transit commuting costs from the page 2 worksheet.
- 12 - 14. Indicate if you are a summer intern, and if yes enter your start and end dates.
15. Indicate if you receive reduced rates for public transportation (employees with disabilities, students, seniors, etc.) Please note that when determining your commuting costs, your transit benefits will be based upon the amount you actually pay.
- 16 - 17. Indicate your regional and organizational codes (check only one item each for Numbers 16 through 17).
- 18 - 19. Sign and date the application, and submit the completed application to your immediate supervisor.

Please follow the instructions and note the reminders at the top of page 2. Use the worksheet to determine total monthly mass transit commuting costs by multiplying the daily cost to and from work by the number of days per month you used mass transit; or by multiplying the weekly cost of mass transit by 4 weeks per month; or by using the actual monthly cost paid. The total monthly mass transit commuting cost should be rounded to the nearest dollar ($.50 or more is rounded up to the next dollar).

In determining the number of days per month, begin with an average 21-day work week. This figure was derived from the 365 day year less 104 weekend days less 10 holidays = 251 work days per year divided by 12 months per year = 20.9 work days per month, rounded to 21 workdays per month. Subtract the scheduled days not commuting to work due to AWS, telework, or regularly scheduled traveling to determine the proper number of days per month that you use mass transit to commute to/from work.

If you are absent from work and your actual commuting cost falls below the amount of transit benefits you receive, you must take a lesser amount during the next distribution. The amount depends on your actual commuting cost during that period. For example, you have certified that your commuting costs are $5.00 per day, or $105.00 per month (non-AWS/telework schedule). You do not commute using mass transit for 10 days (5 days annual leave, 3 days sick leave, 2 days drove to work.) During the next transit benefit distribution period, you must request $55.00 ($105.00 monthly benefit less $50.00 for the ten days not using mass transit), having reduced the amount by the amount of media left from last time.
